GREAT BOUNTIES

PAID TO

U. S. VOLUNTEERS!

THE FOLLOWING BOUNTIES and PREMIUMS will be paid to Recruits, enlisting for three years service:

Every Recruit who is a Veteran Volunteer, one month's pay in advance, and a Bounty and Premium in instalments amounting to $402.

To all other Recruits not Veterans, one month's pay in advance, and a Bounty and Premium in instalments amounting to $302.

All the Bounty and Premium paid, even if the war closes immediately after enlistment.

Protection to Widows and Orphans.

All the Bounty paid to Legal Heirs, if the soldier dies in the service.

☞ You can serve in any regiment you choose, now in the field.

The following PREMIUMS will be paid to any person other than an officer, who shall bring in an accepted Veteran Recruit.

A Premium of	$25 00
For an accepted Recruit (not a veteran)	15 00
For a Deserter.....	30 00

In offering these liberal terms, Bounties and Premiums, it is the desire of the Government to give the people the opportunity of doing away with the necessity of the draft, to come off January 5th, 1864, under the President's last call of Oct. 17, for 300,000 men. So that all sub-districts who furnish their quota under this last call will not be liable to the draft of January 5th, 1864, and will be credited for whatever number they furnish.

It should be understood, that all enlistments whether under the above conditions or in other organizations, will be credited in this last call.

MADAME DEMORFST'S Quarterly Mirror of Fashion for Winter, Received at
Nov 19, 1863 (nov19d) DEARBORN'S

DAILY GAZETTE.

Congressional.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 9.

HOUSE.—Mr. Hubbard, of Conn., gave notice of a bill amendatory of an act entitled "An act for organizing the military forces of the United States, &c." so as to equalize the operation of said act upon the towns and other sub-divisions of enrolment districts.

Mr. Stevens, of Pa., gave notice of a bill to fix the time for the election of representatives to congress, and to enable soldiers to vote at said elections. He also offered a bill to place colored soldiers and non-commissioned officers on the same footing as white men in regard to pay, bounty and pensions,

Also, a bill to authorize the construction of the people's Pacific railroad; also, a bill to repeal the fugitive slave laws of 1793 and 1850; also a joint resolution to repeal the joint resolution of the 17th of July, 1862, explanatory of an act to suppress insurrection, &c.

The resolutions of Cox, looking to an exchange of prisoners, with an amendment sustaining the Administration in the efforts already made, offered by Washburne of Illinois, was then adopted by yeas 103, nays 46.

Mr. Julien of Ind., gave notice of a bill to repeal the fugitive slave acts, so as to prevent the return of fugitives.

SENATE.—Mr. Powell, of Kentucky, gave notice of a bill to prevent Federal officers and soldiers interfering with elections in the States.

Mr. Sunderland was re elected Chaplain.

The joint resolution of thanks to General Grant was ordered to lie on the table, it being alleged that such hasty proceedings would afford a bad precedent.

BEAUTIFUL EXTRACT.—The following waif, afloat on the sea of literature, we clip from an exchange. We do not know its paternity, but it contains some wholesome truth, beautifully set forth:

"Men seldom think of the great event of death till the shadow falls across their own path, hiding forever from their eyes the traces of loved ones whose living smile was the sunlight of their existence. Death is the great antagonist of life, and the cold thought of the tomb is the skeleton of all feasts. We do not want to go through the dark valley, although its passage may lead to paradise; and with Charles Lamb, we do not want to lie down in muddy graves, even with kings and princes for our bed fellows. But the fiat of nature is inexorable. There is no appeal or relief from the law which dooms us to dust. We flourish and fade as the leaves of the forest, and the flowers that bloom and wither in a day have not a trailer hold upon life than the mightiest monarch that ever shook the earth with his footsteps. Generations of men appear and vanish as the grass, and the countless multitude that throng the earth to day will to morrow disappear as the footsteps on the shore. In the beautiful drama of Ion, the instinct of immortality, so eloquently uttered by the death devoted Greek, finds a deep response in every thoughtful soul. When about to yield his existence as a sacrifice to fate, his beloved Clemanthe asks if they shall not meet again, to which he replies: 'I have asked that dreadful question of the hills that look eternal—of the clear streams that flow forever—of the stars among whose fields of azure my raised spirits have walked in glory. All were dumb. But while I gaze upon thy living face, I feel that there is something in the love that mantles through its beauty that cannot perish. We shall meet again, Clemanthe.'"

THE APPROACH OF DEATH.—As life approaches extinction, insensibility supervene—a numbness, and disposition to repose, which does not admit of the idea of suffering. Even in these cases when activity of mind remains to the last, and when nervous sensibility would seem to continue, it is surprising how often there has been observed a happy state of feeling on the approach of death. "If I had sufficient strength to hold a pen, I would write how easy it is to die," were the words of the celebrated William Hunter, during his last moments. Montague, in one of his essays, describes an incident which left him so senseless that he was taken up for dead. On being restored, however, he says: "Methought my life only hung upon my lips, and I shut my eyes to help thrust it out, and took pleasure in languishing and letting it go." An English writer records that a gentleman who had been rescued from drowning declared, that he had not experienced the slightest feeling of suffocation. The stream was transparent, the day brilliant, and as he stood upright, he could see the sun shining through the water with a dreamy consciousness that his eyes were being closed forever. Yet he never feared his fate nor wished to avert it. A sleepy sensation which soothed and gratified him, made a luxurious bed of a watery grave.

ANTIQUITY OF MAN.—In his last essay, Agassiz throws out the following opinion on this interesting topic:

"I do not offer any opinion respecting the fossil human bones so much discussed recently, because the evidence is at present too scanty to admit of any decisive judgment concerning them. It becomes however, daily more probable that facts will force us sooner or later to admit that the creation of man lies far beyond any period yet assigned to it, and that a succession of human races, as of animals, have followed one another upon the earth. It may be the inestimable privilege of our young naturalists to solve this problem but the older men of our generation must be content to renounce this hope; we may have some prophetic vision of its fulfillment; we may look from afar into the land of promise, but we shall not enter in and possess it."

CHARGE OF A MULE BRIGADE.—A correspondent of the N. Y. Tribune, describing the late battle of Lookout Mountain, says:

I have to record an extraordinary episode that occurred during the battle. Some two hundred mules, packed near General Hooker's lines, broke loose and charged furiously across the field toward where a Georgia regiment was stationed. Thinking it was cavalry, or something else, the regiment broke in confusion and ran, leaving one thousand Enfield rifles of the best description behind them, which General Hooker has to show in proof of the incident.

Large quantities of tobacco have been raised in Minnesota this year.

HATHAWAY & HAMMOND.

Carriage Mak'rs

(Successors to L. F. HATHAWAY)

Jackson St. opposite Presbyterian Church.

WE are now conducting one of the best Carriage manufactories in the West. The personal attention and care of the partners are directed to the most important branches of the work—Mr Hathaway superintending, and working at the wood work, and Mr Hammond having charge of the trimming. We feel satisfied that we can turn out from our shop as can be had from Chicago, or any of the eastern cities from which work is now obtained.

AS GOOD WORK

We use only the very best quality of ash, the growth eastern timber, of tempered springs, and cast hardened axles, and employ none but the best workmen in any department of our business.

We have now in hand four own manufacture—light two seated Carriages, extension tops, for one or two horses, light two seat open Buggies, Top Buggies, single cap Buggies, &c.

We would call especial attention to our light

EUREKA ROCKAWAYS,

Single Park Phaetons, Coal Box Buggies, and many others, too numerous to mention, all of which we will sell for the next sixty days for a very small profit, and less than the same can be bought for in the State. All our work warranted

MADAME DEMOREST'S Quarterly Mirror of Fashion for Winter. Received at

Nov. 10, 1863. [nov10d] DEARBORN'S.

DAILY GAZETTE.

Congressional.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 9.

HOUSE.—Mr. Hubbard, of Conn., gave notice of a bill amendatory of an act entitled "An act for organizing the military forces of the United States, &c.," so as to equalize the operation of said act upon the towns and other sub-divisions of enrolment districts.

Mr. Stevens, of Pa., gave notice of a bill to fix the time for the election of representatives to congress, and to enable soldiers to vote at said elections. He also offered a bill to place colored soldiers and non-commissioned officers on the same footing as white men in regard to pay, bounty and pensions.

Also, a bill to authorize the construction of the people's Pacific railroad; also, a bill to repeal the fugitive slave laws of 1793 and 1850; also a joint resolution to repeal the joint resolution of the 17th of July, 1862, explanatory of an act to suppress insurrection, &c.

The resolutions of Cox, looking to an exchange of prisoners, with an amendment sustaining the Administration in the efforts already made, offered by Washburne of Illinois, was then adopted by yeas 103, nays 46.

Mr. Julien of Ind., gave notice of a bill to repeal the fugitive slave acts, so as to prevent the return of fugitives.

SENATE.—Mr. Powell, of Kentucky, gave notice of a bill to prevent Federal officers and soldiers interfering with elections in the States.

Mr. Sunderland was re elected Chaplain.

The joint resolution of thanks to General Grant was ordered to lie on the table, it being alleged that such hasty proceedings would afford a bad precedent.

BEAUTIFUL EXTRACT.—The following waif, afloat on the sea of literature, we clip from an exchange. We do not know its paternity, but it contains some wholesome truth, beautifully set forth:

"Men seldom think of the great event of death till the shadow falls across their own path, hiding forever from their eyes the traces of loved ones whose living smile was the sunlight of their existence. Death is the great antagonist of life, and the cold thought of the tomb is the skeleton of all feasts. We do not want to go through the dark valley, although its passage may lead to paradise; and with Charles Lamb, we do not want to lie down in muddy graves, even with kings and princes for our bedfellows. But the fiat of nature is inexorable. There is no appeal or relief from the law which dooms us to dust. We flourish and fade as the leaves of the forest, and the flowers that bloom and wither in a day, have not a trailer hold upon life than the mightiest monarch that ever shook the earth with his footsteps. Generations of men appear and vanish as the grass, and the countless multitude that throng the earth to day will to-morrow disappear as the footsteps on the shore. In the beautiful drama of Ion, the instinct of immortality, so eloquently uttered by the death-devoted Greek, finds a deep response in every thoughtful soul. When about to yield his existence as a sacrifice to fate, his beloved Clemanthe asks if they shall not meet again, to which he replies: "I have asked that dreadful question of the hills that look eternal—of the clear streams that flow forever—of the stars among whose fields of azure my raised spirits have walked in glory. All were dumb. But while I gaze upon thy living face, I feel that there is something in the love that mantles through its beauty that cannot perish. We shall meet again, Clemanthe."

THE APPROACH OF DEATH.—As life approaches extinction, insensibility supervene—a numbness, and disposition to repose, which does not admit of the idea of suffering. Even in those cases when activity of mind remains to the last, and when nervous sensibility would seem to continue, it is surprising how often there has been observed a happy state of feeling on the approach of death. "If I had sufficient strength to hold a pen, I would write how easy it is to die," were the words of the celebrated William Hunter, during his last moments. Montague, in one of his essays, describes an incident which left him so senseless that he was taken up for dead. On being restored, however, he says: "Methought my life only hung upon my lips, and I shut my eyes to help thrust it out, and took pleasure in languishing and letting it go." An English writer records that a gentleman who had been rescued from drowning declared, that he had not experienced the slightest feeling of suffocation. The stream was transparent, the day brilliant, and as he stood upright, he could see the sun shining through the water with a dreamy consciousness that his eyes were being closed forever. Yet he never feared his fate nor wished to avert it. A sleepy sensation which soothed and gratified him, made a luxurious bed of a watery grave.

ANTIQUITY OF MAN.—In his last essay, Agassiz throws out the following opinion on this interesting topic:

"I do not offer any opinion respecting the fossil human bones so much discussed recently, because the evidence is at present too scanty to admit of any decisive judgment concerning them. It becomes however, daily more probable that facts will force us sooner or later to admit that the creation of man lies far beyond any period yet assigned to it, and that a succession of human races, as of animals, have followed one another upon the earth. It may be the inestimable privilege of our young naturalists to solve this problem, but the older men of our generation must be content to renounce this hope; we may have some prophetic vision of its fulfillment, we may look from afar into the land of promise, but we shall not enter in and possess it."

CHARGE OF A MULE BRIGADE.—A correspondent of the N. Y. Tribune, describing the late battle of Lookout Mountain, says:

I have to record an extraordinary episode that occurred during the battle. Some two hundred mules, packed near General Hooker's lines, broke loose and charged furiously across the field toward where a Georgia regiment was stationed. Thinking it was cavalry, or something else, the regiment broke in confusion and ran, leaving one thousand Enfield rifles of the best description behind, cheap, which General Hooker has to show in proof of the incident.

Large quantities of tobacco have been raised in Minnesota this year.

WILSON'S MUSIC STORE

removed to store opposite Myers Block,

Two Doors west of the Post Office, where may be found a good assortment of

Pianos, Melodeons & Harmoniums, also all the latest popular publications of

SHEET MUSIC,

including a great variety of Patriotic Songs. We keep a large assortment of

MUSICAL MERCHANDISE & INSTRUCTION BOOKS

for every instrument now in use. We have, also,

☞ Boardman's Piano forte Tuning Scale ☜

for tuning Pianos or Melodeons in even temperment. Any person who can tune two strings in unison or octaves can, with this scale, tune a Piano. Its object is to enable those who play the Piano to tune their own instruments.

We would call the attention of all lovers of music to a new instrument which we have just received called the

which bids fair to take the place of the ordinary Melodeon. It has two set of reeds and the power of three common Melodeons. It is inclosed in a strong, neat case of Rosewood or Blackwalnut, and is just the thing for Churches, Lecture Rooms, &c. It is praised by every one that has examined it. Come and see it, two doors west of the Post Office. my22d in all its branches. He will not only make teeth to order for his patients, but intends to keep on hand a large assortment of teeth for Dentists. He makes teeth so cheap that none need to go without teeth.—Every variety of style, from five to sixty dollars per set, and inserts them with such precision that they cannot be distinguished from the natural teeth, with one exception, that is, they never ache! He puts no nerves in them.

Medicated Vapor Baths.

Doctor BURRUS is making arrangements to give medicated vapor baths at the Myers House, where the accommodations are ample for at least one hundred patients. He has attended lectures at three different medical colleges, and had opportunities of witnessing extensive clinical practice, besides spending several months at the Elmira Water Cure, N. Y., where there was from one to two hundred patients treated for every variety of chronic disease. More patients were cured by the vapor bath, of Rheumatism, Gout, Scrofula, Bronchitis, Asthma, Chronic Sore-throat, Incipient Consumption, and that class of diseases known by the name of Female Weakness, than by all other known remedies put together. There is no remedy so well adapted to the cure of skin diseases and so certain in its effects as the vapor bath. No doubt but it will be found an efficient remedy in Diphtheria.

A SUBSTITUTE.—Among the substitutes at camp Randall, is one whose case is rather curious. Without giving his name, we may state that he is a farmer, in good circumstances, who resides in an adjoining county In his town he has been rather a prominent man holding the office of justice of the peace and other town offices from time to time. After the passage of the conscription act, he expressed himself very strongly against the $300 clause, and declared that if either of his boys, two of whom were subject to draft, should be drafted the boy must go to the war. Well, the draft came, and it called for one of the boys, The old man's views of the commutation clause were brought to the test, and were somewhat shaken. He did not want his boy to go, he was amply able to pay the commutation, but he was violently opposed to it on principle, and finally determined, being a hale and well preserved man, that he would go himself as a substitute for the boy. The next thing was to procure some hair dye, with which to restore the hues of youth to his grizzly locks and beard. This done, he was quite rejuvenated, presented himself for examination, was accepted, brought to camp Randall, mustered into the service for three years and turned into the "Bull-pen," which is the camp name for an enclosure made very high and tight, and strongly guarded, in which substitutes are kept prior to being sent forward to regiments in the field. The old gentleman thought it pretty tough to be treated in this way, and began to dislike the service and repent himself of his rashness in going in. Finally, he succeeded in getting his case before the post commandant and satisfying him that he could be treated outside the "Bull-pen." But even with the liberty of the entire camp, the paternal substitute began to pine for home. Camp life did not agree with him, and the prospect of absenting himself from the state for three years began to assume a dreariness of aspect altogether uncomfortable. After some mental struggles, he resolved to overcome his scruples and pay the $300. He communicated his purpose to an officer at camp, but was told that substitutes could not commute after entering the service. His next effort was to get in detailed duty, but he was told that substitutes were not assigned to such service, but were to go into active service in the field. He tried then to get off on the score of age, but that was of no avail. He had been accepted, and his representations on entering the service were conclusive on that subject. The old gentleman, accordingly, is in for the three years.—Madison Journal

THE ABANDONED PLANTATIONS.—The government has ordered a sale of the abandoned lands in its possession in the states of South Carolina, Florida, Virginia and Tennessee. The sale, which is peremptory, is to take place on the 18th day of January next. It will be remembered that the sales in South Carolina were stopped by order of Gen. Gilmore, who did not understand his business. The President has ordered that the sale shall take place on the day fixed, and none of his subordinates are to interfere with this sale. Persons who are thinking of bidding at the sales will be glad to learn that the treasury department is thinking of dispatching a boat to South Carolina early in January, but if this should be done, those persons availing themselves of the opportunity will have to pay for their passage. It is possible that the war department will offer transportation to South Carolina and Florida free of cost to bona fide bidders. The government does not furnish teams, tools or commissary supplies to any purchaser or settler upon the confiscated lands. No title is given till after the expiration of two years. The law is explicit upon this point. The original owner has sixty days after the sale to appear, prove loyalty, pay the successful bidder fifteen per cent. upon his purchase money, and establish his claim. If an alien, or residing abroad, or incompetent, a minor, &c., &c., the owner may appear at any time within two years and take possession of his property, after paying charges sufficient to protect the purchaser from loss.

ORIGIN OF CERTAIN PHRASES.—There are certain familiar phrases used as a kind of current coin by writers and public speakers, the origin of which is a matter of curiosity and interest to scholars, and even to general readers. The following facts are gathered from what is supposed to be good authority:

The terms "masterly inactivity," originated with Sir James Mahintosh. "God tempers the wind to the shorn lamb," which is usually ascribed to Sterne, was taken by him from George Herbert, who translated it from the French of Henry Estinne. "The cup that cheers but not inebriates," is conveyed by Cowper from the "Seris," (a treatise on "Tar-water") of Bishop Berkly. Wadsworth's "The child is father to the man," is traced from him to Milton, and from Milton to Sir Thomas Moore. "Like angel's visits, few and far between," is the offspring of Hook; it is not Thomas Campbell's original thought—old John Norris (1858) originated it, and after him, Robert Blair, as late as 1745. "There's a guide time coming," is Scott's phrase in "Rob Roy," and the "almighty dollar" is Washington Irving's happy thought.—Mass. Teacher.

CAPITOL ITEM.—We hear that the newly elected school commissioners, being Gen. Fairchild, Treasurer Hastings and Attorney General Smith held an informal meeting last evening to talk over the future arrangements of their several offices, and concluded to retain all of their present tried and faithful clerks.—Madison Jour.

Horses have to suffer starvation in war as well as the men. An officer, arrived at Chattanooga, enquired where he could find accomodations for his horse. "Don't know, sah, 'bout de 'commodations. De fence rails is all gone, an' dar ain't nothin' for 'em to eat any more, only a few barn doors, an' we want dem for de General's horses."

Proceedings of the Common Council.

SPECIAL MEETING,
FRIDAY EVENING, Dec. 11.

Present—The Mayor, and Ald. Bates, Burnham, Fredendall, Paten, Pattison, Shelton and Strong.

Absent—Ald. McChesney.

A petition of John W. Harrington for a liquor license was referred to the license committee.

A petition for a sidewalk from the north end of Monterey bridge to Pleasant street was referred to the aldermen from the 4th ward.

An order was adopted appropriating $58.90 from the Ruger avenue fund to B. B. Eldredge as the assignee of Horace Love, the contractor.

Ald. Strong presented the petition we published yesterday, to raise by a tax on the city $22,400 as a volunteer fund, and moved that it be placed on file.

Ald. Shelton moved to amend Ald. Strong's motion by referring the petition to the judiciary committee.

Ald. Strong opposed the amendment, as calculated to defeat the object of the petition.

The question on Ald. Shelton's amendment was taken, by ayes and noes, and the amendment adopted by the following vote:

Ayes—Ald. Bates, Fredendall, Patten, and Shelton.

Noes—Ald. Burnham, Pattison, and Strong.

The motion, as thus amended, was then adopted by the same vote as adopted the amendment.

Ald. Strong then moved that when the council adjourns, it adjourns to-morrow (Saturday) evening, for the special purpose of receiving the report of the judiciary committee on the petition.

Ald. Bates moved to amend by substituting next Wednesday evening.

Ald. Strong opposed the amendment, as creating a delay which would be injurious to the proposition.

Ald. Bates thought the tax payers of the city generally should have an opportunity to express their wishes, and give the council the means to conform its action to such wishes.

The question on the amendment of Ald. Bates was taken by ayes and noes, and resulted as follows:

Ayes—Ald. Bates, Fredendall, Patten, and Shelton.

Noes—Ald. Burnham, Pattison and Strong.

The motion as amended was then adopted, and the council resolved to meet next Wednesday evening and act upon the petition.

The Mayor presented and read the stipulation between the county and city, providing for the submission of the disputed tax to a board of arbitrators.

Mr. Wm. M. Tallman, by permission, addressed the council, and denied both the power of the council to make such a submission, and the expediency of it, if it could be done, as the claim of the county was upon the property of the individuals delinquent, and the money already collected, and the balance whenever collected, could be forced from the city treasury by a mandamus.

Considerable discussion followed, as to the matters properly within the scope of the submission and other questions connected with it.

A provision in the stipulation providing for a judgment to carry out the award of the arbitrators was stricken out.

Ald. Patten introduced an order rescinding the resolution appointing John Winans, esq., arbitrator on the part of the city.

In the course of a discussion on this order, it was stated that Mr. Winans had declared that he would be unable to serve.

The order of Ald. Patten was adopted by the following vote:

Ayes—Ald. Bates, Burnham, Fredendall, Patten, Pattison.

Noes—Ald. Shelton, Strong.

Ald. Strong then moved to fill the place of Mr. Winans with S. Foord, jr., city treasurer. Mr. Foord declined, for the reason that the duties of his office would so engage his time that he would be unable to serve for some time to come. Mr. J. J. R. Pease was then named, and he declined. The name of Wm. M. Tallman was then proposed, and Mr. T. also declined, as he was a member of the new county board of supervisors.

Finally, after a consultation with members of the county board who were present, who stated that the meeting of the arbitrators could be delayed until Mr. Foord could meet with them, Mr. Foord was selected in place of Mr. Winans by the following vote:

Ayes—Ald. Burnham, Fredendall, Pattison and Patten.

Noes—Ald. Bates, Shelton and Strong.

The stipulation was then adopted, as amended, and the Mayor instructed to inform the county board of supervisers of the action of the council, and the Mayor and City Clerk authorized to execute the stipulation.

A bill of $10 was allowed to G. Nettleton for the use of his office five days for elections at different times.

Daniel McDougal was appointed hay and wood measurer for the west side of the river.

Adjourned to Wednesday evening next.

Some weeks ago, the residence, at Washington, of the famous Dr. Garnett, son-in law of Wise, the man who called upon thousands of Virginians to help in the hanging of John Brown was sold under the confiscation act, for $3,500 and is now renting for $2,800 per annum.

Governor Seymour has agreed with the secretary of war in appointing Judge Allen of Oswego, Gen. Lane of Indiana, and Gen. Rice of Massachusetts, a committee to ascertain the quota of the State of New York, and to inquire into the alleged disproportionate enrollment in certain districts.

The Richmond Enquirer states that two substitutes were recently purchased in that city, one for ten thousand and the other for eleven thousand dollars. There is no commutation clause in the conscription law of the confederacy.

BY WISCONSIN STATE TELEGRAPH LINE,

Last Night's Report.

PORTLAND, Dec. 11.

The agents of the steamer Chesapeake here have evidence that the cargo of the Chesapeake was owned exclusively by American and Canadian merchants, and was not intended to run the blockade, as was reported by the St. John's Globe. The sympathisers here originated that report to the prejudice of the British authorities. Neither had she ever been a southern vessel, or attempted to run the blockade. The collector at Eastport telegraphs the collector at Portland that a Mr. Killan left Public, 10 miles south of Yarmouth, last Monday, and that three French vessels laden with coal were lying in harbor.

NEW YORK, Dec. 11.

The Times special says:—Lovejoy's bill for the punishment of slave holders, of which he gave notice on the first day of the session, provides that all the slaves freed by the emancipation proclamation of January 1st, or by act of congress, shall be declared to be citizens and competent witnesses in all United States courts. Any one attempting to reduce any one so freed again to slavery shall be declared guilty of a misdemeaner, and punishable with a fine of not less than $2000 or more than $10,000, and be imprisoned not less than one or more than ten years.

NEW YORK, Dec. 11.

Steamer ——, from Liverpool the 22d, with two days later news, arrived here this afternoon. The steamer Rappahannock, under the confederate flag, arrived at Calais on the 26th ult. The confederate steamer Georgia has gone into dock at Cherbourg to repair some small damages.

Additional news says that the Rappahannock was seized by the French customhouse authorities. She sailed from Sheerness, England, on the 26th of November in an unfinished state. She had a gang of carpenters on board. She is pierced for eight guns.

In pursuance of President Lincoln's proclamation the Americans in London observed the 26th of November as a day of thanksgiving. Business was suspended at the American Legation and Consulates, and a large banquet was given at Saint James' Hall, under the presidency of Robert J. Walker. Mr. Lincoln's proclamation was read, and Mr. Walker delivered an address on the rebellion and the prospects of its speedy suppression. A toast to the president was read with great enthusiasm, and was responded to by Mr. Adams.

NEW YORK Dec. 11.

A Richmond paper of the 8th states that Gen. Stephen Lee reports from Mississippi that Gen. Chalmers drove the enemy over Wolf river, slaughtering 300, and that the rebels lost 25 in killed and 75 wounded.

Rebel accounts report that the Georgia senate has ordered a conscription of every able-bodied man over fifteen years old.

A Charleston dispatch of the 5th reports the destruction of the calcium light at Fort Gregg by a shot from Moultrie, and says Sumter is safe against all assaults.

PORTLAND, Me., Dec. 11.

The Vice Consul at Halifax telegraphs the collector of a steamer in Shelbourne, answering the description of the Chespeake. She attempted to coal at Halifax last night. The government was applied to but no encouragement given. For want of evidence of the murder committed, an affidavit of the charge would have to be made. The crown officer was deliberating upon it.

The steamer New England arrived this evening from St. Johns, bringing Captain Willits and a portion of the crew of the Chespeake, all of whom, with the exception of the mate, who is badly wounded, proceeded to Boston.

Capt. Willits reports having met two steamers bound east, undoubtedly in pursuit of the pirates.

He also reports all persons engaged in the capture of the Chespeake, passed from Boston in the steamer New England, but a few days ago, and most of them were undoubtedly provincials.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 11.

The Star contains the following:

To Major Gen. E. Hitchcock:

My belief is, that our prisoners on Belle Isle are in tents. I have requested Mr. Ould to share the clothing and subsistence sent by the government with our citizen prisoners. I have no doubt it has been done. [Signed] J. A. MEREDITH.

NEW YORK, Dec. 11.

The losses by the fire among the shipping on the North River, on Thursday night, now foot up over three hundred and fifty thousand dollars, with insurance of two hundred thousand, nearly all in city companies. The damage to the piers is about seventy-five thousand dollars. Thirty-four vessels and barges in all, with their cargoes, consisting for the main part in hay and grain intended for goverment use, were destroyed.

The rumors in relation to the pursuit of the Chesapeake, captured by the disguised rebels who went on board at Portland as passengers, are exciting. It is now stated that she was seen yesterday off New Foundland. At least twenty goverment steamers are after her.

Mr. Cromwell, her owner, to day tendered the Secretary of the Navy, the steamer Potomac, of the same line. The offer was accepted, and she is now at the navy yard receiving her armament. The Potomac is a very fast sailing vessel.

The report of Secretary Chase has steadied the money market, stocks with a few exceptions are weak. Government stocks are steady with a slight advance. Gold is shaky at $1.51. Subscriptions to the volunteer bounty fund now exceed three quarters of a million.

It is snowing hard with prospect of a heavy fall.

DESMOINES, IOWA, Dec. 11.

The Supreme Court of Iowa has this day given its unanimous opinion, declaring the law allowing soldiers to vote constitutional and valid.

The seat of Grinnell in Congress, and the election of over 150 members of the state legislature, and county officers, heretofore contingent upon this decision, are now secured.

FORTRESS MONLOE, Dec. 11.

The Richmond Whig of the 9th has the following:

CHARLESTON, Dec. 8.—A brisk fire between Moultrie and Battery Gregg opened this morning. The Yankees have ceased firing on Sumter. They are altering their batteries and entrenching from Gregg eastward. One monitor has timber work around the sides to protect her from torpedoes. Our batteries keep up a slow fire upon the enemy's working parties. Slow fires are kept up between the enemy's batteries and ours.

[Reported Exclusively for the Daily Gazette.]

MORNING DISPATCHES.

No report this morning. Eastern line down.

AFTERNOON DISPATCHES.

At three o'clock a portion of the forenoon report came in, and a little before four o'clock the balance of the forenoon and the afternoon report was received. We have no time to give more than the following extracts:

NEW YORK, Dec. 12.

By the arrival of the Fulton from Port Royal, we learn the loss of the monitor Weehawken, which sunk at anchor inside Charleston bar Sunday last. Four engineers and 26 of the crew were drowned. A furious gale prevailed at the time. Other vessels sustained no damage. The situation before Charleston is unchanged. The Weehawken lies in five fathoms of water, but is expected to be raised. The loss is said to be from neglect and bad management.

PORTLAND, Dec. 12.

The steamer Chesapeake left Shellburne at 12 last night, after shipping men and coaling.

CINCINNATI, Dec. 12.

Special to Commercial.—Chattanooga, Dec. 11.—Yesterday three regiments were out on reconnoissance from Chickamauga, accompanied by Grant and Thomas. Graves of a number of our officers were found, and the bodies of other officers found unburied. Killyp House, in which our wounded were left in the retreat, was found burned. An expedition goes out to-morrow to bury the dead.

ATTENTION.—There will be an adjourned meeting of Section 1, Battery A, held at the Common Council rooms Monday evening, at 7 o'clock. Every member is hereby ordered to report at that time as business of importance will be transacted.

Announces that he can be found at the

Hyatt House, for a few days,

From Rochester, Professional Optician and Manufacturer of the Improved Eye Preserving Spectacles, &c., respectfully solicits ladies and gentlemen who are in the habit of wearing the Glasses now in common use, and which are so injurious to the sight, owing to their attracting heat and drawing the eyes, or whomay have had them impaired by the use of such Glasses, Weakness, Opacity, or any other defect, to make a trial of his

IMPROVED PERISCOPIC LENS.

These Glasses are made of the finest crystal, and constructed in accordance with the philosophy of nature. In the form of a concavo-convex mirror, and their transparency is so perfect that the wearer can only perceive he has them on by the improvement of the sight The great novelty of them is the focus, which is disposed of in such a manner as to counteract the infirmity which it is intended to remedy. The material of which they are manufactured gives them a superior hardness and polish, which prevents their being defaced by scratches, and their coolness recommends them especially to those having weak and irritable eyes. The superiority and usefulness of these improved spectacles is fully demonstrated by the unanimous approval of the most celebrated physicians and oculists.

I know Mr. L. Fleischman, Optician, &c, he is a citizen of Rochester, and can cheerfully recommend him to the confidence of all in want of his goods.

C. H. CLARK, Ex-Mayor.

Through a long and intimate acquaintance with Mr L. Fleischman, I most cheerfully substantiate and endorse all that he is recommended to be in the foregoing certificate of C. H. Clark. W. H. BRIGGS, M. D.

Special attention will be paid to Cataract, Short-Sighted and Weak Eyes. de12d1d*

LYON'S KATHAIRON.

LYON'S KATHAIRON.—Kathairon is from the Greek word "Kathro," or "Kathairo," signifying to cleanse, rejuvenate and restore. This article is what its name signifies. For preserving, restoring and beautifying the human hair it is the most remarkable preparation in the world. It is again owned and put up by the original proprietor, and is now made with the same care, skill and attention which gave it a sale of over one million bottles per annum.

It is a most delightful Hair Dressing.
It eradicates scurf and dandruff.
It keeps the head cool and clean.
It makes the hair rich, soft and glossy.
It prevents the hair from falling off and turning gray.
It restores hair upon bald heads.

Any lady or gentleman who values a beautiful head of hair should use Lyon's Kathairon. It is known and used throughout the civilized world. Sold by all respectable dealers.

WYNKOOP'S ICELAND PECTORAL.

Diseases of the throat, chest and pulmonary organs are ever prevalent, insidious and dangerous. The properties of a medicine to alleviate, cure and uproot these complaints, must be expectorant, anodyne and invigorating, loosening the mucus of the throat, and imparting tone to the entire system. No discovery in medical science ever mastered this class of diseases like Dr. Wynkoop's Iceland Pectoral. It is used with the most astonishing results in all cases of bronchitis, influenza whooping cough, diptheria or putrid sore throat, asthma, croup, coughs, colds, nervous irritability, &c.

The Rev. J. J. Potter certifies, "that I have used Dr Wynkoop's Pectoral for several years, myself and in my family, for severe pulmonary complaints, and have recommended it to many others, and have never seen its equal." Rev. J. J. POTTER, Brooklyn, N. Y.

Hundreds and thousands of important testimonials could be produced, showing its remarkable cures and that it never fails.

It is composed of pure Iceland moss, Balm of Gilead, Peruvian balsam, elecampane, comfrey, burdock, and other invaluable expectorant and tonic ingredients. It is harmless, prompt and lasting. Invalids and sufferers cannot afford to neglect a trial. Every family should have it. It is remarkable for croup. Full descriptions, recommendations and directions accompany each bottle.

Sold by all the principal druggists.

Prepared by Dr. R. D. Wynkoop, and sold by D. S Barnes & Co., New York. aug10daweowly

A SUBSTITUTE.—Among the substitutes at camp Randall, is one whose case is rather curious. Without giving his name, we may state that he is a farmer, in good circumstances, who resides in an adjoining county In his town he has been rather a prominent man holding the office of justice of the peace and other town offices from time to time. After the passage of the conscription act, he expressed himself very strongly against the $300 clause, and declared that if either of his boys, two of whom were subject to draft, should be drafted the boy must go to the war. Well, the draft came, and it called for one of the boys, The old man's views of the commutation clause were brought to the test, and were somewhat shaken. He did not want his boy to go, he was amply able to pay the commutation, but he was violently opposed to it on principle, and finally determined, being a hale and well preserved man, that he would go himself as a substitute for the boy. The next thing was to procure some hair dye, with which to restore the hues of youth to his grizzly locks and beard. This done, he was quite rejuvenated, presented himself for examination, was accepted, brought to camp Randall, mustered into the service for three years and turned into the "Bull-pen," which is the camp name for an enclosure made very high and tight, and strongly guarded, in which substitutes are kept prior to being sent forward to regiments in the field. The old gentleman thought it pretty tough to be treated in this way, and began to dislike the service and repent himself of his rashness in going in. Finally, he succeeded in getting his case before the post commandant and satisfying him that he could be trusted outside the "Bull-pen." But even with the liberty of the entire camp, the paternal substitute began to pine for home. Camp life did not agree with him, and the prospect of absenting himself from the state for three years began to assume a dreariness of aspect altogether uncomfortable. After some mental struggles, he resolved to overcome his scruples and pay the $300. He communicated his purpose to an officer at camp, but was told that substitutes could not commute after entering the service. His next effort was to get in detailed duty, but he was told that substitutes were not assigned to such service, but were to go into active service in the field. He tried then to get off on the score of age, but th s was of no avail. He had been accepted, and his representations on entering the service were conclusive on that subject. The old gentleman, accordingly, is in for the three years.—Madison Journal

THE ABANDONED PLANTATIONS.—The government has ordered a sale of the abandoned lands in its possession in the states of South Carolina, Florida, Virginia and Tennessee. The sale, which is peremptory, is to take place on the 18th day of January next. It will be remembered that the sales in South Carolina were stopped by order of Gen. Gilmore, who did not understand his business. The President has ordered that the sale shall take place on the day fixed, and none of his subordinates are to interfere with this sale. Persons who are thinking of bidding at the sales will be glad to learn that the treasury department is thinking of dispatching a boat to South Carolina early in January, but if this should be done, those persons availing themselves of the opportunity will have to pay for their passage. It is possible that the war department will offer transportation to South Carolina and Florida free of cost to bona fide bidders. The government does not furnish teams, tools or commissary supplies to any purchaser or settler upon the confiscated lands. No title is given till after the expiration of two years. The law is explicit upon this point. The original owner has sixty days after the sale to appear, prove loyalty, pay the successful bidder fifteen per cent. upon his purchase money, and establish his claim. If an alien, or residing abroad, or incompetent, a minor, &c., &c., the owner may appear at any time within two years and take possession of his property, after paying charges sufficient to protect the purchaser from loss.

ORIGIN OF CERTAIN PHRASES.—There are certain familiar phrases used as a kind of current coin by writers and public speakers, the origin of which is a matter of curiosity and interest to scholars, and even to general readers. The following facts are gathered from what is supposed to be good authority:

The terms "masterly inactivity," originated with Sir James Makintosh. "God tempers the wind to the shorn lamb," which is usually ascribed to Sterne, was taken by him from George Herbert, who translated it from the French of Henry Estinne. "The cup that cheers but not inebriates," is conveyed by Cowper from the "Seris," (a treatise on "Tar-water") of Bishop Berkly. Wadsworth's "The child is father to the man," is traced from him to Milton, and from Milton to Sir Thomas Moore. "Like angel's visits, few and far between," is the offspring of Hook; it is not Thomas Campbell's original thought—old John Norris (1858) originated it, and after him, Robert Blair, as late as 1745. "There's a guide time coming," is Scott's phrase in "Rob Roy," and the "almighty dollar" is Washington Irving's happy thought.—Mass. Teacher.

CAPITOL ITEM.—We hear that the newly elected school commissioners, being Gen. Fairchild, Treasurer Hastings and Attorney General Smith held an informal meeting last evening to talk over the future arrangements of their several offices, and concluded to retain all of their present tried and faithful clerks.—Madison Jour.

Horses have to suffer starvation in war as well as the men. An officer, arrived at Chattanooga, enquired where he could find accomodations for his horse. "Don't know, sah, 'bout de 'commodations. De fence rails is all gone, an' dar ain't nothin' for 'em to eat any more, only a few barn doors, an' we want dem for de General's horses."

Proceedings of the Common Council.

SPECIAL MEETING,
FRIDAY EVENING, Dec. 11.

Present—The Mayor, and Ald. Bates, Burnham, Fredendall, Paten, Pattison, Shelton and Strong.

Absent—Ald. McChesney.

A petition of John W. Harrington for a liquor license was referred to the license committee.

A petition for a sidewalk from the north end of Monterey bridge to Pleasant street was referred to the aldermen from the 4th ward.

An order was adopted appropriating $58.90 from the Ruger avenue fund to B. B. Eldredge as the assignee of Horace Love, the contractor.

Ald. Strong presented the petition we published yesterday, to raise by a tax on the city $22,400 as a volunteer fund, and moved that it be placed on file.

Ald. Shelton moved to amend Ald. Strong's motion by referring the petition to the judiciary committee.

Ald. Strong opposed the amendment, as calculated to defeat the object of the petition.

The question on Ald. Shelton's amendment was taken, by ayes and noes, and the amendment adopted by the following vote:

Ayes—Ald. Bates, Fredendall, Patten, and Shelton.

Noes—Ald. Burnham, Pattison, and Strong.

The motion, as thus amended, was then adopted by the same vote as adopted the amendment.

Ald. Strong then moved that when the council adjourns, it adjourns to-morrow (Saturday) evening, for the special purpose of receiving the report of the judiciary committee on the petition.

Ald. Bates moved to amend by substituting next Wednesday evening.

Ald. Strong opposed the amendment, as creating a delay which would be injurious to the proposition.

Ald. Bates thought the tax payers of the city generally should have an opportunity to express their wishes, and give the council the means to conform its action to such wishes.

The question on the amendment of Ald. Bates was taken by ayes and noes, and resulted as follows:

Ayes—Ald. Bates, Burnham, Fredendall, Patten, Pattison.

Noes—Ald. Shelton, Strong.

Ald. Strong then moved to fill the place of Mr. Winans with S. Foord, jr., city treasurer. Mr. Foord declined, for the reason that the duties of his office would so engage his time that he would be unable to serve for some time to come. Mr. J. J. R. Pease was then named, and he declined. The name of Wm. M. Tallman was then proposed, and Mr. T. also declined, as he was a member of the new county board of supervisors.

Finally, after a consultation with members of the county board who were present, who stated that the meeting of the arbitrators could be delayed until Mr. Foord could meet with them, Mr. Foord was selected in place of Mr. Winans by the following vote:

Ayes—Ald. Burnham, Fredendall, Pattison and Patten.

Noes—Ald. Bates, Shelton and Strong.

The stipulation was then adopted, as amended, and the Mayor instructed to inform the county board of supervisors of the action of the council, and the Mayor and City Clerk authorized to execute the stipulation.

A bill of $10 was allowed to G. Nettleton for the use of his office five days for elections at different times.

Daniel McDougal was appointed hay and wood measurer for the west side of the river.

Adjourned to Wednesday evening next.

Some weeks ago, the residence, at Washington, of the famous Dr. Garnett, son-in law of Wise, the man who called upon thousands of Virginians to help in the hanging of John Brown was sold under the confiscation act, for $3,500 and is now renting for $2,800 per annum.

Governor Seymour has agreed with the secretary of war in appointing Judge Allen of Oswego, Gen. Lane of Indiana, and Gen. Rice of Massachusetts, a committee to ascertain the quota of the State of New York, and to inquire into the alleged disproportionate enrollment in certain districts.

The Richmond Enquirer states that two substitutes were recently purchased in that city, one for ten thousand and the other for eleven thousand dollars. There is no commutation clause in the conscription law of the confederacy.

Last Night's Report.

PORTLAND, Dec. 11.

The agents of the steamer Chesapeake here have evidence that the cargo of the Chesapeake was owned exclusively by American and Canadian merchants, and was not intended to run the blockade, as was reported by the St. John's Globe. The sympathisers here originated that report to the prejudice of the British authorities. Neither had she ever been a southern vessel, or attempted to run the blockade. The collector at Eastport telegraphs the collector at Portland that a Mr. Killan left Public, 10 miles south of Yarmouth, last Monday, and that three French vessels laden with coal were lying in harbor.

NEW YORK, Dec. 11.

The Times special says:—Lovejoy's bill for the punishment of slave holders, of which he gave notice on the first day of the session, provides that all the slaves freed by the emancipation proclamation of January 1st, or by act of congress, shall be declared to be citizens and competent witnesses in all United States courts. Any one attempting to reduce any one so freed again to slavery shall be declared guilty of a misdemeaner, and punishable with a fine of not less than $2000 or more than $10,000, and be imprisoned not less than one or more than ten years.

NEW YORK, Dec. 11.

Steamer ——, from Liverpool the 22d, with two days later news, arrived here this afternoon. The steamer Rappahannock, under the confederate flag, arrived at Calais on the 26th ult. The confederate steamer Georgia has gone into dock at Cherbourg to repair some small damages.

Additional news says that the Rappahannock was seized by the French custom-house authorities. She sailed from Sheerness, England, on the 26th of November in an unfinished state. She had a gang of carpenters on board. She is pierced for eight guns.

In pursuance of President Lincoln's proclamation the Americans in London observed the 26th of November as a day of thanksgiving. Business was suspended at the American Legation and Consulates, and a large banquet was given at Saint James' Hall, under the presidency of Robert J. Walker. Mr. Lincoln's proclamation was read, and Mr. Walker delivered an address on the rebellion and the prospects of its speedy suppression. A toast to the president was read with great enthusiasm, and was responded to by Mr. Adams.

New York Dec. 11.

A Richmond paper of the 8th states that Gen. Stephen Lee reports from Mississippi that Gen. Chalmers drove the enemy over Wolf river, slaughtering 300, and that the rebels lost 25 in killed and 75 wounded.

Rebel accounts report that the Georgia senate has ordered a conscription of every able-bodied man over fifteen years old.

A Charleston dispatch of the 5th reports the destruction of the calcium light at Fort Gregg by a shot from Moultrie, and says Sumter is safe against all assaults.

PORTLAND, Me., Dec. 11.

The Vice Consul at Halifax telegraphs the collector of a steamer in Shelbourne, answering the description of the Chesapeake. She attempted to coal at Halifax last night. The government was applied to but no encouragement given. For want of evidence of the murder committed, an affidavit of the charge would have to be made. The crown officer was deliberating upon it.

The steamer New England arrived this evening from St. Johns, bringing Captain Willits and a portion of the crew of the Chespeake, all of whom, with the exception of the mate, who is badly wounded, proceeded to Boston.

Capt. Willits reports having met two steamers bound east, undoubtedly in pursuit of the pirates.

He also reports all persons engaged in the capture of the Chespeake, passed from Boston in the steamer New England, but a few days ago, and most of them were undoubtedly provincials.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 11.

The Star contains the following:

To Major Gen. E. Hitchcock:

My belief is, that our prisoners on Belle Isle are in tents. I have requested Mr. Ould to share the clothing and subsistence sent by the government with our citizen prisoners. I have no doubt it has been done. [Signed] J. A. MEREDITH.

NEW YORK, Dec. 11.

The losses by the fire among the shipping on the North River, on Thursday night, now foot up over three hundred and fifty thousand dollars, with insurance of two hundred thousand, nearly all in city companies. The damage to the piers is about seventy-five thousand dollars. Thirty-four vessels and barges in all, with their cargoes, consisting for the main part in hay and grain intended for goverment use, were destroyed.

The rumors in relation to the pursuit of the Chesapeake, captured by the disguised rebels who went on board at Portland as passengers, are exciting. It is now stated that she was seen yesterday off New Foundland. At least twenty goverment steamers are after her.

Mr. Cromwell, her owner, to-day tendered the Secretary of the Navy, the steamer Potomac, of the same line. The offer was accepted, and she is now at the navy yard receiving her armament. The Potomac is a very fast sailing vessel.

The report of Secretary Chase has steadied the money market, stocks with a few exceptions are weak. Government stocks are steady with a slight advance. Gold is shaky at $1.51. Subscriptions to the volunteer bounty fund now exceed three quarters of a million.

It is snowing hard with prospect of a heavy fall.

DESMOINES, Iowa, Dec. 11.

The Supreme Court of Iowa has this day given its unanimous opinion, declaring the law allowing soldiers to vote constitutional and valid.

The seat of Grinnell in Congress, and the election of over 150 members of the state legislature, and county officers, heretofore contingent upon this decision, are now secured.

FORTRESS MONROE, Dec. 11.

The Richmond Whig of the 9th has the following:

CHARLESTON, Dec. 8.—A brisk fire between Moultrie and Battery Gregg opened this morning. The Yankees have ceased firing on Sumter. They are altering their batteries and entrenching from Gregg eastward. One monitor has timber work around the sides to protect her from torpedoes. Our batteries keep up a slow fire upon the enemy's working parties. Slow fires are kept up between the enemy's batteries and ours.

To-Day's Report.

[Reported Exclusively for the Daily Gazette.]

MORNING DISPATCHES.

No report this morning. Eastern line down.

AFTERNOON DISPATCHES.

At three o'clock a portion of the forenoon report came in, and a little before four o'clock the balance of the forenoon and the afternoon report was received. We have no time to give more than the following extracts:

NEW YORK, Dec. 12.

By the arrival of the Fulton from Port Royal, we learn the loss of the monitor Weehawken, which sunk at anchor inside Charleston bar Sunday last. Four engineers and 26 of the crew were drowned. A furious gale prevailed at the time. Other vessels sustained no damage. The situation before Charleston is unchanged. The Weehawken lies in five fathoms of water, but is expected to be raised. The loss is said to be from neglect and bad management.

PORTLAND, Dec. 12.

The steamer Chesapeake left Shellburne at 12 last night, after shipping men and coaling.

CINCINNATI, Dec. 12.

Special to Commercial.—Chattanooga, Dec. 11.—Yesterday three regiments were out on reconnoissance from Chickamauga, accompanied by Grant and Thomas. Graves of a number of our officers were found, and the bodies of other officers found unburied. Killyp House, in which our wounded were left in the retreat, was found burned. An expedition goes out to-morrow to bury the dead.

ATTENTION.—There will be an adjourned meeting of Section 1, Battery A, held at the Common Council rooms Monday evening, at 7 o'clock. Every member is hereby ordered to report at that time as business of importance will be transacted.

By order R. B. TREAT,
Lieut Comd'g.

DIED.

In this city, Dec. 12th, 1863, BENJAMIN BATES HARRISON, only son of Benjamin B. and Elizabeth Harrison, aged 8 years and 4 months.

L. FLEISCHMAN,

Announces that he can be found at the

Hyatt House, for a few days,

From Rochester, Professional Optician and Manufact'uror of the Improved Eye-Preserving Spectacles, &c., respectfully solicits ladies and gentlemen who are in the habit of wearing the Glasses now in common use, and which are so injurious to the sight, owing to their attracting heat and drawing the eyes, or who may have had them impaired by the use of such Glasses, Weakness, Opacity, or any other defect, to make a trial of his

IMPROVED PERISCOPIC LENS.

These Glasses are made of the finest crystal, and constructed in accordance with the philosophy of nature, in the form of a concavo-convex mirror, and their transparency is so perfect that the wearer can only perceive he has them on by the improvement of the sight. The great novelty of them is the focus, which is disposed of in such a manner as to counteract the infirmity which it is intended to remedy. The material of which they are manufactured gives them a superior hardness and polish, which prevents their being defaced by scratches, and their coolness recommends them especially to those having weak and irritable eyes. The superiority and usefulness of these improved spectacles is fully demonstrated by the unanimous approval of the most celebrated physicians and oculists.

I know Mr. L. Fleischman, Optician, &c, he is a citizen of Rochester, and can cheerfully recommend him to the confidence of all in want of his goods.

C. H. CLARK, Ex-Mayor.

Through a long and intimate acquaintance with Mr L. Fleischman, I most cheerfully substantiate and endorse all that he is recommended to be in the foregoing certificate of C. H. Clark. W. H. BRIGGS, M. D.

LYON'S KATHAIRON.

LYON'S KATHAIRON.—Kathairon is from the Greek word "Kathiro," or "Kathairo," signifying to cleanse, rejuvenate and restore. This article is what its name signifies. For preserving, restoring and beautifying the human hair it is the most remarkable preparation in the world. It is again owned and put up by the original proprietor, and is now made with the same care, skill and attention which gave it a sale of over one million bottles per annum.

It is a most delightful Hair Dressing.
It eradicates scurf and dandruff.
It keeps the head cool and clean.
It makes the hair rich, soft and glossy.
It prevents the hair from falling off and turning gray.
It restores hair upon bald heads.
Any lady or gentleman who values a beautiful head of hair should use Lyon's Kathairon. It is known and used throughout the civilized d. Sold by all respectable dealers.

WYNKOOP'S ICELAND PECTORAL.

Diseases of the throat, chest and pulmonary organs are ever prevalent, insidious and dangerous. The properties of a medicine to alleviate, cure and uproot these complaints, must be expectorant, anodyne and invigorating, loosening the mucus of the throat, and imparting tone to the entire system. No discovery in medical science ever mastered this class of diseases like Dr. Wynkoop's Iceland Pectoral. It is used with the most astonishing results in all cases of bronchitis, influenza whooping cough, diptheria or putrid sore throat, asthma, croup, coughs, colds, nervous irritability, &c.

The Rev. J. J. Potter certifies, "that I have used Dr Wynkoop's Pectoral for several years, myself and in my family, for severe pulmonary complaints, and have recommended it to many others, and have never seen its equal." Rev. J. J. POTTER, Brooklyn, N. Y.

Hundreds and thousands of important testimonials could be produced, showing its remarkable cures and that it never fails.

It is composed of pure Iceland moss, Balm of Gilead, Peruvian balsam, elecampane, comfrey, burdock, and other invaluable expectorant and tonic ingredients. It is harmless, prompt and lasting. Invalids and sufferers cannot afford to neglect a trial. Every family should have it. It is remarkable for croup. Full descriptions, recommendations and directions accompany each bottle.

Sold by all the principal druggists.

Prepared by Dr. R. D. Wynkoop, and sold by D. S Barnes & Co., New York. aug10dawcowly

For the Gazette

Promises to Volunteers.

In the Gazette of December 11th appears an article headed "The Families of Soldiers," in which promises made to volunteers two years since are recalled, and the question asked, "Are they forgotten?" The daughter of a soldier who enlisted under the inducements then offered, would say that some of the promises have not been fulfilled, whether they are forgotten or not. A portion of the city bounty then promised has never been paid, and futhermore it has been repeatedly stated that "you need never expect it."

Why were those promises made? Why were men urged to leave home and friends for the camp and battle field, when it was known that more was attempted than could be accomplished. It was not hinted that anything would be wrong until the soldiers were made fast in the service of their country, and then were told by men most actively engaged in inducing them to enlist, that there was no such bounty offered. Now, that this devoted city of Janesville may escape the draft, citizens are urging that the whole property of the city should be equally taxed to raise more money, which they claim to be for volunteers. The writer earnestly hopes that Janesville will make no more promises than they intend to fulfill. If soldiers' property has got to be taxed to raise this bounty, I hope and trust that the city will pay its debts, and Uncle Sam will pay the soldiers their six month's due before the tax comes.

A CARD.

Catarrh, Throat Diseases, Asthma, Bronchitis, Early Stages of Consumption, Liver Complaint, Diseases of Women, and all other Complaints that lead to Consumption.

Are treated in a new and eminently successful manner by Dr. Hale, who has a permanent office in the MYER'S HOUSE, JANESVILLE.

Catarrh and Throat Diseases always end in Consumption, hence the necessity of consulting a physician devoted to this speciality, before it is too late. Those who are trying patent nostrums, or waiting for the disease to "wear off" should think, while it is yet time, of those who waited but in vain, and gone down to the grave fallen victims to Consumption. Many might have been saved had they checked the disease while it was a Catarrh or inflammation of the throat.

All are invited to call and investigate Dr. Hale's mode of treatment, practiced by no other physician. Consultation free.

Persons unable to apply at the office may consult by letter, when question lists will be furnished them to give an accurate description of their case.

THE SINGER SEWING MACHINES.

Our LETTER A FAMILY SEWING MACHINE is fast gaining a world-wide reputation. It is beyond doubt the best and cheapest and most beautiful of all Family Sewing Machines yet offered to the public. No other Family Sewing Machine has so many useful appliances for hemming, binding, felling, tucking, gathering, guaging, braiding, embroidering, cording, and so forth. No other Family Sewing Machine has so much capacity for a great variety of work. It will sew all kinds of cloth, and with all kinds of thread. Great and recent improvements make our Family Sewing Machine most reliable, and most durable, and most certain in action a all rates of speed. It makes the interlocked stitch which is the best stitch known. Any one, even of the most ordinary capacity, can see, at a glance, how to use the letter A Family Sewing Machine. Our Family Sewing Machines are finished in chaste and exquisite style.

The Folding Case of the Family Machine is a piece of cunning workmanship of the most useful kind. It protects the machine when not in use, and when about to be operated may be opened as a spacious and substantial table to sustain the work. While some of the Cases, made out of the choicest woods, are finished in the simplest and chastest manner possible, others are adorned and embellished in the most costly and superb manner.

It is absolutely necessary to see the Family Machine in operation, so as to judge of its great capacity and beauty.

It is fast becoming as popular for family sewing as our Manufacturing machines are for manufacturing purposes.

The Branch Offices are well supplied with silk, twist, thread, needles, oil, &c., of the very best quality.

Rich! Rare! Beautiful!

MUCH THE RICHEST AND Most Extensive

assortment of

GOLD, SILVER AND PLATED WARE, Clocks, Watches, AND JEWELRY,

ever exhibited to the citizens of this town, is now being received at the store of

J. A. DENELL,

In the Myers House Block,

Corner of Main and Milwaukee Streets,

JANESVILLE.

For the beauty and exquisite finish of his Gold, Silver and Plated Ware, Mr. Denell flatters himself that he can satisfy the most correct and refined taste, and he pledges himself that his prices shall be such as to suit the most economical. A look at his beautiful show cases will convince every body that there is no exaggeration about this notice, and a close examination of his goods and prices will satisfy all that the best of bargains can be obtained from his extensive stock.

Among his assortment will be found the most beautiful styles of Cake Baskets, Castors, Ice Pitchers, Butter Dishes, Cream Pitchers, Card Baskets, Children's Tea Setts, Silver and Plated Spoons, Ivory handled Knives and Plated Forks, Gold and Silver Watches, Jewelry, Clocks, fine Cutlery, and in fact every thing that can be found in a well supplied Jewelry store.

IN REPAIRING

he cannot be excelled. Having thoroughly learned the trade himself, and employing none but the best of workmen; and furthermore having at great expense supplied himself with a full set of tools and machinery, he is ready to do the most intricate work and to warrant the same.

He most respectfully solicits the patronage of the public.

Janesville, Nov. 23, 1863.

SPECTACLES.

N. B. Special attention has been and will be given to the selection of glasses for the eye. All the various kinds required will be kept on hand, in every variety of frames. He has just imported a very superior lot of concave glasses for nearsightedness, in steel wire bows, the equal of which cannot be found in this state.—Those afflicted with nearsightedness, and who wish a light, easy-fitting and clear seeing pair of glasses, will do well to examine the assortment I have on hand.

Wheeler & Wilson's

MRS. S. M. COE, Agent,

FOR THE WHEELER & WILSON, has opened an office in this city, one door north of the American, where the various styles, the CAPACITY and mechanism of this machine will be fully exhibited. Her long experience in the business, with the established character of the machine, give her confidence to believe that she can meet the wants of the public in this direction; and may she not reasonably expect a share of its patronage?

She is permanently located, and will devote her time exclusively to the work.

To enumerate the various classes of sewing which this machine is capable of doing, is unnecessary—but from a tissue to a beaver cloth it walks with perfect ease.

It will use any class of good thread or silk.
It requires no basting.
It turns its own hems and fells.
It gathers beautifully.
Its cording will will speak for itself, as will also
Its tucking, quilting, braiding, &c.

RALLY! RALLY!!

The citizens of Janesville will meet at the Court Room, Tuesday Evening, Dec. 15, to take into consideration what measures are necessary to procure VOLUNTEERS and avoid the coming DRAFT in the city.

Beloit has raised volunteers to fill her quota already; other cities and towns are doing the same thing. Shall we be behind in the good work. We can avoid the Draft if we will. Shall we do it? Every man, woman and child is interested in the matter. Let them all attend the meeting.

YOUNG MEN'S LITERARY UNION.—At the meeting of this society last Monday evening, the following persons were elected officers: E. H. Benham, president; A. D. Stoddard, vice president; L. Ingledew, secretary, and P. Livingston, treasurer.

The subject for discussion next Monday evening, Dec. 14th, is as follows:

Resolved, That the results of the present rebellion will be more beneficial than detrimental to mankind.

Correspondence of the Daily Gazette.
FORTRESS ROSECRANS,
MURFREESBORO, Tenn., Dec. 4, 1863.

Editors Gazette:—Having ascertained that there existed a doubt with some about express matters reaching us at this place from Wisconsin, I would say to such that no trouble now exists that is known to the agent at this place, as he is receiving express matter every day. Should any be stopped at Nashville our quartermaster will send a team after it. Our friends need have no fears about the matter, but forward immediately.

Yours, &c., H. H. GUERNSEY,

For the Gazette.

Promises to Volunteers.

In the Gazette of December 11th appears an article headed "The Families of Soldiers," in which promises made to volunteers two years since are recalled, and the question asked, "Are they forgotten?" The daughter of a soldier who enlisted under the inducements then offered, would say that some of the promises have not been fulfilled, whether they are forgotten or not. A portion of the city bounty then promised has never been paid, and furthermore it has been repeatedly stated that "you need never expect it."

Why were those promises made? Why were men urged to leave home and friends for the camp and battle field, when it was known that more was attempted than could be accomplished. It was not hinted that anything would be wrong until the soldiers were made fast in the service of their country, and then were told by men most actively engaged in inducing them to enlist, that there was no such bounty offered. Now, that this devoted city of Janesville may escape the draft, citizens are urging that the whole property of the city should be equally taxed to raise more money, which they claim to be for volunteers. The writer earnestly hopes that Janesville will make no more promises than they intend to fulfill. If soldiers' property has got to be taxed to raise this bounty, I hope and trust that the city will pay its debts, and Uncle Sam will pay the soldiers their six month's due before the tax comes.

A CARD.

Catarrh, Throat Diseases, Asthma, Bronchitis, Early Stages of Consumption, Liver Complaint, Diseases of Women, and all other Complaints that Lead to Consumption.

Are treated in a new and eminently successful manner by Dr. Hale, who has a permanent office in the MYER'S HOUSE, JANESVILLE.

Catarrh and Throat Diseases always end in Consumption, hence the necessity of consulting a physician devoted to this speciality, before it is too late. Those who are trying patent nostrums, or waiting for the disease to "wear off" should think, while it is yet time, of those who waited but in vain, and gone down to the grave fallen victims to Consumption. Many might have been saved had they checked the disease while it was a Catarrh or inflammation of the throat.

All are invited to call and investigate Dr. Hale's mode of treatment, practiced by no other physician. Consultation free.

Persons unable to apply at the office may consult by letter, when question lists will be furnished them to give an accurate description of their case.

THE SINGER SEWING MACHINES.

OUR LETTER A FAMILY SEWING MACHINE is fast gaining a world-wide reputation. It is beyond doubt the best and cheapest and most beautiful of all Family Sewing Machines yet offered to the public. No other Family Sewing Machine has so many useful appliances for hemming, binding, felling, tucking, gathering, gunging, braiding, embroidering, cording, and so forth. No other Family Sewing Machine has so much capacity for a great variety of work. It will sew all kinds of cloth, and with all kinds of thread. Great and recent improvements make our Family Sewing Machine most reliable, and most durable, and most certain in action a all rates of speed. It makes the interlocked stitch which is the best stitch known. Any one, even of the most ordinary capacity, can see, at a glance, how to use the letter A Family Sewing Machine. Our Family Sewing Machines are finished in chaste and exquisite style.

The Folding Case of the Family Machine is a piece of cunning workmanship of the most useful kind. It protects the machine when not in use, and when about to be operated may be opened as a spacious and substantial table to sustain the work. While some of the Cases, made out of the choicest woods, are finished in the simplest and chastest manner possible, others are adorned and embellished in the most costly and superb manner.

It is absolutely necessary to see the Family Machine in operation, so as to judge of its great capacity and beauty.

It is fast becoming as popular for family sewing as our Manufacturing machines are for manufacturing purposes.

The Branch Offices are well supplied with silk, twist, thread, needles, oil, &c., of the very best quality.

Rich! Rare! Beautiful!

MUCH THE RICHEST AND Most Extensive assortment of

GOLD, SILVER AND PLATED WARE, Clocks, Watches, AND JEWELRY,

ever exhibited to the citizens of this town, is now being received at the store of

J. A. DENELL,

In the Myers House Block,

Corner of Main and Milwaukee Streets,

JANESVILLE.

For the beauty and exquisite finish of his Gold, Silver and Plated Ware, Mr. Denell flatters himself that he can satisfy the most correct and refined taste, and he pledges himself that his prices shall be such as to suit the most economical. A look at his beautiful show cases will convince every body that there is no exaggeration about this notice, and a close examination of his goods and prices will satisfy all that the best of bargains can be obtained from his extensive stock.

Among his assortment will be found the most beautiful styles of Cake Baskets, Castors, Ice Pitchers, Butter Dishes, Cream Pitchers, Card Baskets, Children's Tea Setts, Silver and Plated Spoons, Ivory handled Knives and Plated Forks, Gold and Silver Watches, Jewelry, Clocks, fine Cutlery, and in fact every thing that can be found in a well supplied Jewelry store.

IN REPAIRING

he cannot be excelled. Having thoroughly learned the trade himself, and employing none but the best of workmen; and furthermore having at great expense supplied himself with a full set of tools and machinery, he is ready to do the most intricate work and to warrant the same.

He most respectfully solicits the patronage of the public.

Janesville, Nov. 23, 1863.

SPECTACLES.

N. B. Special attention has been and will be given to the selection of glasses for the eye. All the various kinds required will be kept on hand, in every variety of frames. He has just imported a very superior lot of concave glasses for nearsightedness, in steel wire bows, the equal of which cannot be found in this state.—Those afflicted with nearsightedness, and who wish a light, easy-fitting and clear seeing pair of glasses, will do well to examine the assortment I have on hand.

Wheeler & Wilson's

MRS. S. M. COE, Agent,

FOR THE WHEELER & WILSON, has opened an office in this city, one door north of the American, where the various styles, the CAPACITY and mechanism of, this machine will be fully exhibited. Her long experience in the business, with the established character of the machine, give her confidence to believe that she can meet the wants of the public in this direction; and may she not reasonably expect a share of its patronage?

She is permanently located, and will devote her time exclusively to the work.

To enumerate the various classes of sewing which this machine is capable of doing, is unnecessary—but from a tissue to a beaver cloth it walks with perfect ease.

It will use any class of good thread or silk.
It requires no basting.
It turns its own hems and folds.
It gathers beautifully.
Its cording will will speak for itself, as will also its tucking, quilting, braiding, &c.

LADIES' and Children's Balmoral Skirts, at de5-tf McKEY & BRO.

IMPORTANT ANNOUNCEMENT!

TO THE INHABITANTS OF

JANESVILLE, Rock and Adjoining Counties

THE LARGEST, best selected and most complete stock of Goods ever received by McKey & Bro., is now opened and ready for sale at their Great Mart east side of Main street, consisting of the most modern fabrics for LADIES' & GENTLEMEN'S WEAR.

A splendid line of Black and Fancy Dress Silks, direct from Europe. We will sell a good Black Silk, ¾ yd wide, at $1,00 per yard; Golden Brown, double lustre silk, a beautiful and fashionable dress silk, just received; also a most magnificent stock of Ladies Dress Goods, embracing all-wool and wool and linen English Reps, Silk Turin a beautiful article of dress goods, double width English Tartans, heavy London Gray, for traveling dresses; Bonnaine Cloths, Parisian Plaids of very desirable patterns, fresh and French Depline, plain Alpaccas, single and double widths, in all colors; genuine double-lustre Mohairs, etc. etc. Some of the above goods are sold as low as the common dress prints or de laine, and warranted to wear twice as long.—These goods were purchased personally by Edward McKey, of this firm, during his travels in Europe last July and August. 1000 Cloaks on exhibition in our embracing all the novelties of the season, some of which have been imported direct from Paris, and are of the most elegant designs. Our stock of Cloaks will be kept full and complete during the fall and winter, and we are now prepared to manufacture Cloaks and Mantles to order, on short notice, and in any desired style.

Cloak and Shawl Department

SHAWLS! SHAWLS!

In endless variety, amongst which will be found the Eugenia, Albani, and Victoria striped, Scotch Plaids, Waterloos, Middlesex, Squares and long Wool shawls, single and double Broche shawls, in every variety.—These goods have advanced materially in price within the past two months, but having made purchases in Europe prior to the advance, enables us to sell with fair profit this class of goods much less than the prices of New York this day. For instance, we sell, as usual, a good silk and wool square Broche shawl at $5,00, and the balance at proportionate prices.

BALMORAL SKIRTS!

3000 just Imported by us, of splendid designs and colors, some of which we will sell as low as $2,00. A skirt worth this day in New York $5,00, is now offered by us at $3,49, and at this rate is cheaper than the same quantity of cotton cloth.

Our Stock of Domestics is still large and varied, having on hand many bales and cases of goods purchased by us before the great advance, and which we are selling this day less than New York wholesale prices. 500 pieces Prints suitable for bed comforters, at 12½ cents per yard.

A large stock of

LADIES' FURS,

on hand, comprising Capes, Muffs, Victorines, in Mink, Martin, and other varieties, which we offer

At Less than Manufacturer's Prices!

BOOTS AND SHOES!

Having purchased the entire stock of Ladies' and Children's Boots, Shoes, and Rubbers, for net cash, from a manufacturer in New York city, we now offer this class of goods at from 25 to 40 per cent less than the present eastern wholesale prices. Ladies' Rubbers for 75 cents; best quality do for $1,00.

OUR STOCK OF MILLINERY is now complete, consisting of everything new and desirable in that line. Our Wholesale Department contains a select assortment of Ribbons, Silks, Velvets, Flowers, Ruches, Plumes, Feathers, Bonnets, Hats, Trimmings, etc., which we guarantee to sell to Milliners as cheap as any house in the trade. In Millinery Goods at Wholesale or Retail, we cannot be undersold.

CLOTHING FOR THE MILLION!

In our Clothing Department will be found decidedly the largest stock in this city, of Men's and Boys' Clothing, principally of our own manufacture, and from the largest and best clothing houses in New York city; also, a splendid line of French and English cloths, Cassimeres and Vestings, and all the superior names of Harris and other noted manufacturers, which we sell by the piece or yard, or manufacture to order in the very best style. We guarantee to sell to the trade, in small quantities, as low as any house in the Union.

Garments cut to order in the most fashionable style, and trimmed at the very lowest figures. Call and examine our stock, which is one of the largest in the state.

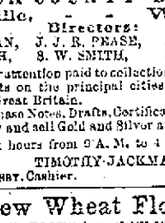

In conclusion, we would say, that we never had a more splendid stock of goods than we have at present. It was purchased in Europe, personally, for net cash, and in invoice from importers and manufacturers, and will be sold by us at a small advance on cost. The old motto of "Large Sales and Small Profits," was many years ago adopted by us to our advantage; and this year, more than ever, we are bound to "go for it."

Very respectfully, McKEY & BRO.
Janesville, October 8th, 1863. oc10daw

S. L. JAMES,

Clerk of the County Board of Supervisors of Rock County.

Janesville, August the 25th, 1863. sept10m3

Tax Notice.

CITY TREASURER'S OFFICE, Janesville, Wis., October 22d, 1863.

I HEREBY give notice to all persons interested, that I intend to make application to the circuit court, in and for Rock county, on the first day of the next term thereof, to be held at the courtroom in the city of Janesville, on the 7th day of December, A. D. 1863, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon of that day, or as soon thereafter as the same can be heard, for judgment against the several lots, lands, pieces or parcels of land, described in a report then and there to be made and filed with the clerk of said court, for the unpaid taxes levied by the common council of the city of Janesville, for city purposes, for the year 1863, and charged upon such lots, lands, pieces or parcels of land, to be returned and reported delinquent for said year; and all persons interested therein, are requested to attend at such term of said court and offer their defence, (if any they may have,) to said application.

SYLVESTER FOORD, JR., Treasurer of the City of Janesville. oc22dtf
